Bodrum, Turkey

There is a reason travelers flock to the Bodrum Peninsula, the most obvious being the pristine beaches, charming villages and sparkling resorts.

2.

Kavala/Philippi, Greece

Gorgeous Kavala and neighboring Philippi have many stories to tell, involving Apostle Paul, the Ottomans, local fishermen and more.

3.

Port-Vendres, France

The French town of Port-Vendres has a decidedly Catalan feel, which is no surprise given its location less than 25 kilometres from Spain.

4.

Salerno, Italy

Just east of Italy's legendary Amalfi Coast, Salerno is within close proximity to many beautiful locales, including Amalfi, Positano, Naples and more.

5.

Killybegs, Ireland

Donegal's scenic fishing village, Killybegs is situated in a region marked by natural beauty and rich in Celtic heritage.
